

Honorable Albert Thomas
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Thomas:

This is in reply to your letter of October 31, 1955, concerning [redacted] who is interested in the possibility of employment with the Agency. [redacted] talked to Mr. Kirkpatrick, the Inspector General, and Mr. Harrison G. Reynolds, the Director of Personnel, on October 11, 1955. [redacted] presented some very interesting qualifications for employment, which are being thoroughly reviewed by our Personnel Office and the interested component of the organization. We will certainly do everything in our power to utilize the services of [redacted] but I should warn you at the present time we are hiring very few people.

I greatly appreciate your courtesy in calling [redacted] to our attention.

With very best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
